NOTICE.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

EITHER of our busines in Saco or Biddeford, separately, or together, will be sold or rented to any responsible parties. Terms and Payments easy.

Our arrangements with the Messrs. Fendersons ceases on the 29th, by limitation. They will close their accounts to that date and wish all to be prepared to settle up when called upon.

Until we find parties to purchase our business, we shall do a strictly cash business. We have no accounts contracted, lately, for bread, and we are so soon to close up our business, we do not want to open new accounts. We owe our thanks to a host of good and prompt paying customers, and we hope they will not think us ungenerous because we cease crediting. Were we to continue, for a length of time, we should take pleasure in accommodating them. But we have said enough.

We shall do our best to please the short time we continue to furnish them, and for the Cash we hope to sell them cheap than hereafter, for we shall not have to make good customers pay for the losses on poor ones, in the shape of high prices.
